

AUGUST 19, 2013 - TAHL PROPP EQUITIES IN THE NEWS - By Kevin Parker

Reception & Urban Art Exhibition of Photographs by Natl. Humanities Award Recipient Camilo Jose Vergara, Wed. Aug. 21, 6pm - 8pm

In homage to HARLEM WEEK and the 50th Anniversary of the March on Washington, The Greater Harlem Chamber of Commerce and Tahl Propp Equities are hosting an extraordinary exhibition of Urban Art portraying Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. as photographed by National Humanities Award-recipient Camilo Jose Vergara.

Who: Greater Harlem Chamber of Commerce (GHCC) and Tahl Propp Equities

What: An exhibition of urban artwork from across the country, comprising murals, billboards, signage and graffiti, as photographed by artist and 2012 National Humanities Award-recipient, Camilo Jose Vergara.

<http://www.thenation.com/article/175731/how-streets-honor-martin-luther-king-jr#axzz2cNHrt97> and http://articles.philly.com/2013-08-18/news/41422808_1_elgin-diner-mount-ephraim-avenue-camden.

When: Wednesday, August 21, 2013; 6-8 p.m.

Where: 1900 Lexington Avenue, between 118th and 119th Streets, west side of Street at ground level.

Why: "Harlem and Dr. King's legacies are historically tied," said Lloyd Williams, president of The Greater Harlem Chamber of Commerce.

"The works in this exhibition display the magnitude of his influence nationwide as envisioned by people of all colors and creeds."