

REAL ESTATE WEEKLY

Wednesday, September 12, 2012 - AROUND TOWN Section - Page B6

For the third year in a row, New York-based real estate investment, development and management firm Tahl Propp Equities has helped another 1,000 students in Harlem start the new school year with colorful backpacks filled with supplies as part of its community sponsorship program. Joseph A. Tahl, president of Tahl Propp, said, "For me as a father, it is especially gratifying to see so many kids enjoying their new backpacks and knowing we've given a competitive edge to 3,000 students since starting this program." Tahl Propp Equities has been active in Harlem for more than a decade. Over the years, the firm has contributed in excess of a half million dollars to various community-based groups, including $320,000 to the Harlem Academy. Currently, Tahl Propp Equities is preparing to develop 240 to 300 units of 100 percent affordable housing on Park Avenue between 107th and 108th Streets.

